Senate

Chamber Action

Routine Proceedings, pages 3871–3964

Measures Introduced: Nine bills and three resolutions were introduced, as follows: S. 2162–2170, S.J. Res. 271–272, and S. Res. 394.

Page 3928

Measures Reported: Reports were made as follows:

S. 1609, for the relief of James P. Purvis. (S. Rept. No. 100–298)

Measures Passed:

Immigration Act of 1988: By 88 yeas to 4 nays (Vote No. 50), Senate passed S. 2104, to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act, to change the level, and preference system of admission, of immigrants to the United States, and to provide for administrative naturalization, after agreeing to a committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended.

Intelligence Oversight Act: By 71 yeas to 19 nays (Vote No. 52), Senate passed S. 1721, to improve the congressional oversight of certain intelligence activities, and to strengthen the process by which such activities are approved within the Executive Branch, after agreeing to a committee amendment in the nature of a substitute and taking action on additional amendments proposed thereto, as follows:

Pages 3871, 3873, 3891

Adopted:

(1) Wallop Amendment No. 1661, to strike the language which provided that nothing in the Act shall be construed as authority to withhold information from the intelligence committees on the grounds that providing the information would constitute the unauthorized disclosure of classified information or information relating to intelligence sources and methods.

Page 3902

(2) Wallop Amendment No. 1662, to modify the language which authorizes the President to conduct special activities.

Rejected:

Chafee Amendment No. 1642, to provide that the President shall ensure that any finding approved, or determination made, pursuant to subsection (a), shall be reported to the intelligence committees prior to the initiation of the activities authorized, and in no event later than 10 days after such finding is signed or the determination is otherwise made by the President. (By 60 yeas to 32 nays (Vote No. 51), Senate tabled the amendment.)

Withdrawn:

(1) Wallop Amendment No. 1641, to provide that nothing in the Act shall be construed as requiring the Executive Branch to identify their parties involved in special activities to the Congress.

Page 3900

(2) Wallop Amendment No. 1638, to strike section 503(a)(6) dealing with the violation of United States statutes.

Page 3903

(3) Wallop Amendment No. 1635, to provide that nothing in the Act shall be construed as contradicting the practice that, before the beginning of each fiscal year, the President shall prepare and transmit to the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate a classified report setting forth a budget for existing and prospective special activities to be conducted during that fiscal year.

(4) Helms-Symms Amendment No. 1657 (to Amendment No. 1635), of a perfecting nature, to provide that no provision in the Act shall be effective until the President, using existing authority, certifies that the Soviet Union has provided accurate data regarding the size and composition of its SS-20 missile force.

By 73 yeas to 18 nays (Vote No. 49), three-fifths of those Senators duly chosen and sworn having voted in the affirmative, Senate earlier agreed to close further debate on the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute to the bill.

Senate

Chamber Action

Routine Proceedings, pages 4835–4984

Measures Introduced: Six bills and two resolutions were introduced, as follows: S. 2205–2210, S.J. Res. 278, and S. Res. 400.

Measures Reported: Reports were made as follows:

S.J. Res. 231, to authorize the entry into force of the "Compact of Free Association" between the United States and the Government of Palau, and for other purposes, with an amendment in the nature of a substitute. (S. Rept. No. 100–307)

S. 1508, to withdraw and reserve for the Department of the Air Force certain Federal lands within Lincoln County, Nevada, and for other purposes.

Measures Passed:

Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Regulation Compact Amendments: Senate passed H.J. Res. 480, granting the consent of the Congress to amendments made by Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia to the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Regulation Compact.

Commission on Art and Antiquities of the United States Senate: Senate agreed to S. Res. 400, to modify section 5 of S. Res. 382, 90th Congress, to allow the Commission on Art and Antiquities of the United States Senate, with the prior approval of the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, to procure the temporary (not to exceed 1 year) or intermittent services of individual consultants, or organizations thereof, in the same manner and under the same conditions as a standing committee of the Senate may procure such services.

Federal Employees Leave Transfers: Senate passed H.R. 3981, to make section 7351 of title 5, United States Code, inapplicable to leave transfers under certain experimental programs covering Federal employees, except as the Office of Personnel Management may otherwise prescribe.

High Risk Occupational Disease Notification and Prevention Act: Senate continued consideration of S. 79, to notify workers who are at risk of occupational disease in order to establish a system for identifying and preventing illness and death of such workers, with a modified committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, taking action on amendments proposed thereto, as follows:

Pages 4844, 4971

Rejected:

Breaux Amendment No. 1795 (to Amendment No. 1773), of a perfecting nature, to revise the medical removal provisions relating to small business and others. (Amendment was ruled as not in order.)

Withdrawn:

(1) Ford Amendment No. 1774 (to Amendment No. 1773), of a perfecting nature, to clarify the medical monitoring provisions relating to seasonal agricultural workers.

Page 4844

(2) Breaux Amendment No. 1775, to revise the medical removal provisions relating to small business and others.

Page 4847

(3) Dixon Amendment No. 1776 (to Amendment No. 1775), of a perfecting nature, to clarify the medical monitoring provisions. (Amendment fell when Amendment No. 1775 was withdrawn.)

Page 4844

The pending committee amendment in the nature of a substitute was modified, incorporating the following two amendments, and they are therefore no longer pending:

(1) Dixon Amendment No. 1773, to provide a further limitation with respect to medical removal.

Page 4844

(2) Breaux Amendment No. 1797 (to Amendment No. 1773), of a perfecting nature, to revise the medical removal provisions relating to small business and others.

Page 4847

By 33 yeas to 59 nays (Vote No. 68), three-fifths of those Senators duly chosen and sworn not having voted in the affirmative, Senate earlier failed to close further debate on the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute to the bill.

Senate will continue consideration of the bill and amendments proposed thereto on Thursday, March 24, with a cloture vote on the modified committee amendment in the nature of a substitute.

White House Conference on Library and Information Services: Senate insisted on its amendments to H.J. Res. 90, to authorize and request the President to call a White House Conference on Library and Information Services, to be held not later than 1989, agreed to a conference requested by the House thereon, and appointed as conferees Senators Pell, Kennedy, Matsunaga, Dodd, Mikulski, Stafford, Hatch, Quayle, and Thurmond.

Page 4880

Agricultural Act Amendments: Senate concurred in the House amendments to S. 2151, to amend section 416 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, relating to wheat, rice, and feed grains.

Page 4880

Chamber Action

Routine Proceedings, pages 6515–6606

Measures Introduced: Five bills and one resolution were introduced, as follows: S. 2277–2281, and S. Con. Res. 115.

Page 6585

Congressional Budget Resolution for 1989: Senate continued consideration of S. Con. Res. 113, setting forth the congressional budget for the United States Government for fiscal years 1989, 1990, and 1991, taking action on additional amendments proposed thereto, as follows:

Pages 6522, 6527, 6547

Adopted:

(1) Chiles Amendment No. 1928, to express the sense of the Congress that the Congress should enact legislation that makes the definition of the deficit exclude the surplus (or deficit) from the Social Security trust fund for all purposes, and that would within 5 years eliminate the deficit when calculated to exclude the surplus (or deficit) from the Social Security trust fund, as amended.

Page 6522

(2) By 85 yeas to 8 nays (Vote No. 87), Stevens-McClure Amendment No. 1931 (to Amendment No. 1928), of a perfecting nature, to express the sense of the Congress that the Postal Service should be removed from the Federal Budget.

Page 6522

(3) Garn Amendment No. 1933 (to Amendment No. 1928), of a perfecting nature, to express the sense of the Congress that the financial institution regulators should be removed from the Federal Budget.

Page 6529

(4) Gramm modified Amendment No. 1934 (to Amendment No. 1928), of a perfecting nature, to express the sense of the Congress that (1) the Congress should enact legislation that makes the definition of the deficit exclude the surplus (or deficit) from the Military Retirement, Civil Service Retirement, and Unemployment Trust Funds for all purposes, and (2) the Congress should enact legislation that would within 5 years eliminate the deficit when calculated to exclude the surplus (or deficit) from these trust funds. (By 45 yeas to 49 nays (Vote No. 88), Senate earlier failed to table the amendment.)

Page 6930

(5) Domenici Amendment No. 1937 (to Amendment No. 1928), of a substitute, to express the sense of the Congress that the National Economic Commission should study the budgetary treatment of trust funds.

Page 6547

(6) By 76 yeas to 18 nays (Vote No. 91), Specter Amendment No. 1938, to provide funds for the construction of additional prison space and to provide additional funds for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, Department of the Treasury.

Page 6550

(7) By unanimous vote of 93 yeas (Vote No. 92), DeConcini Amendment No. 1943, to accommodate sufficient budget authority and outlays for a new anti-drug initiative introduced in the Senate (S. 2205) for fiscal year 1989.

Rejected:

(1) Gramm Amendment No. 1935 (to Amendment No. 1928), of a perfecting nature, to express the sense of the Congress that the Congress should enact legislation that makes the definition of the deficit include the current value of the unfunded liabilities of the Federal Government. (By 53 yeas to 43 nays (Vote No. 89), Senate tabled the amendment.)

Page 6537

(2) Chiles Amendment No. 1936 (to Amendment No. 1928), in the nature of a substitute, to express the sense of the Congress that (1) the Congress should enact legislation that makes the definition of the deficit exclude the surplus (or deficit) from the Social Security trust fund for all purposes, and (2) the Congress should enact legislation that would within 5 years eliminate the deficit when calculated to exclude the surplus (or deficit) from the Social Security trust fund. (By 70 yeas to 26 nays (Vote No. 90), Senate tabled the amendment.)

The rule makes in order the Judiciary Committee amendment in the nature of a substitute now printed in the bill as original text for the purpose of amendment under the five minute rule. Waives all points of order against the substitute for failure to comply with the provisions of sections 302(c) and 302(f) of the Congressional Budget Act and also clause 5(a) of Rule XXI. The rule provides that no amendments to the bill are in order except pro forma amendments offered for the purposes of debate and the amendments printed in the report accompanying this resolution. Said amendments are not subject to amendment except pro forma amendments. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions. Testimony was heard from Representative Berman.

Bob Sikes Visitor Center: Senate passed S. 1736, to designate the Federal Building located at 1801 Gulf Breeze Parkway, Gulf Breeze, Florida, as the "Bob Sikes Visitor Center," after agreeing to an amendment proposed thereto, as follows:

Byrd (for Metzenbaum and Glenn) Amendment No. 2095, to provide that, upon the request of the Ohio Turnpike Commission and the State of Ohio, the Secretary shall (1) enter into an agreement providing that toll revenues from operation of the tolled Ohio Turnpike facility will be used only on such facility for construction and reconstruction costs and for costs necessary for the proper operation and debt service of such facility, and (2) void Agreement No. 1264, dated July 14, 1964, entered into with said Commission and the State of Ohio with respect to such facility.

National Defense Authorizations, 1989: Senate resumed consideration of S. 2355, to authorize funds for fiscal year 1989 for military activities of the Department of Defense, for military construction, and for defense activities of the Department of Energy, and to prescribe personnel strengths for such fiscal year for the Armed Forces, taking action on further amendments proposed thereto, as follows:

Adopted:

(1) Stevens Amendment No. 2079, to provide that (1) not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of the Act, the Secretary of Defense shall prescribe guidelines which provide that a fixed-price contract should be awarded in the case of a development program conducted by the Department of Defense only when the level of program risk permits realistic pricing, and the use of a fixed-price contract permits an equitable and sensible allocation of program risk between the United States and the contractor; and (2) the Secretary of a military department and the head of a Defense Agency may not award a firm fixed-price contract in excess of $10 million for the development of a major system or a subsystem of a major system unless the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition determines and states in writing that the award of such contract is consistent with certain specified criteria.

(2) Stevens Amendment No. 2080, to require the Secretary of Defense to determine whether the allowability of foreign selling costs under Department of Defense contracts will result in cost advantages for the United States.

Page 11087

(3) Warner Amendment No. 2081, to make a contract goal for minorities applicable to printing, binding, and related services required by the Department of Defense.

Page 11089

(4) Helms Amendment No. 2083, to express the sense of the Congress that the President should, without further delay, propose an early date to conduct a five-year review of the ABM Treaty, and immediately thereafter inform the Congress of the results of the review.

Page 11100

(5) Helms Amendment No. 2084, to urge economic sanctions against the Communist regime in power in Ethiopia.

Page 11110

(6) Domenici-Bingaman Amendment No. 2087, to provide that, not later than June 30, 1989, the President shall submit a report to the Congress which includes a review of the relationship of the arms control objectives of the United States with the responsiveness of research and development of monitoring systems for weapons verification.

(10) Cohen Amendment No. 2093, to provide funds for the procurement of one DDG–51 class destroyer by the Navy.

Rejected:

(1) Johnston-Breaux Amendment No. 2082, to provide that the Secretary of the Navy may not limit competition for the shipbuilding portion of the DDG–51 destroyer program in fiscal year 1989 to the two shipyard contractors to which the competition is limited on the date of the enactment of the Act, unless the Secretary certifies to Congress that the limitation of such competition to such contractors (i) will result in a lower total cost to the United States for the program than would result from including other shipyard contractors in the competition; and (ii) is necessary to meet the cost, schedule, or performance requirements of the Navy determined by the Secretary, and that such certification may not be issued until after the bids for such competition are received. (By 63 yeas to 24 nays (Vote No. 140), Senate tabled the amendment.)

(2) Helms Amendment No. 2086, to prohibit the expenditure of funds for implementation of the United States-U.S.S.R. Afghan agreement until the President has submitted such agreement to the Senate for its advice and consent. (By 63 yeas to 30 nays (Vote No. 141), Senate tabled the amendment.)

Withdrawn:

(1) Bumpers Amendment No. 2088, to limit the operational deployment of certain strategic offensive nuclear weapons systems and launchers.

Page 11142

(2) Murkowski Amendment No. 2090, to express the sense of the Congress that Kuwait should make greater efforts to bear its proportionate share of the costs of protecting commercial shipping in the Persian Gulf.

Pending:

(1) Helms modified Amendment No. 2085, to provide that no funds shall be obligated or expended for assistance to the Panamanian Defense Force unless and until the President has certified to Congress that no armed forces of the Soviet Union, Cuba, or Nicaragua are present in the Republic of Panama and that Gen. Manuel Noriega has been removed as Commander of the Panamanian Defense Force, barred from all offices and authority, and prohibited from designating or appointing his successor; that nothing shall prohibit the President from obligating or expending any funds necessary for the defense of the Panama Canal or for the maintenance of United States armed forces or interests in Panama; and requiring that the President shall provide a detailed report to Congress regarding the situation.

A unanimous-consent agreement was reached providing for further consideration of the amendment on Tuesday, May 17, with a rollcall vote to occur thereon at 9:30 a.m.

Measures Introduced: Three bills were introduced, as follows: S. 2404–2406.

Page 11248

National Defense Authorizations, 1989: Senate continued consideration of S. 2355, to authorize funds for fiscal year 1989 for military activities of the Department of Defense, for military construction, and for defense activities of the Department of Energy, and to prescribe personnel strengths for such fiscal year for the Armed Forces, taking action on further amendments proposed thereto, as follows:

Pages 11193, 11217

Adopted:

(1) Warner Amendment No. 2096, of a technical nature.

Page 11194

(2) Nunn Amendment No. 2097 (to Amendment No. 2027, previously agreed to), relating to the purchase of American products.

Page 11194

(3) By unanimous vote of 95 yeas (Vote No. 143), Helms modified Amendment No. 2085, to provide that no funds shall be obligated or expended for assistance to the Panamanian Defense Force unless and until the President has certified to Congress that no armed forces of the Soviet Union, Cuba, or Nicaragua are present in the Republic of Panama and that Gen. Manuel Noriega has been removed as Commander of the Panamanian Defense Force, barred from all offices and authority, and prohibited from designating or appointing his successor; that nothing shall prohibit the President from obligating or expending any funds necessary for the defense of the Panama Canal or for the maintenance of United States armed forces or interests in Panama; and requiring that the President shall provide a detailed report to Congress regarding the situation.

(4) By 86 yeas to 10 nays (Vote No. 144), Dole Amendment No. 2094, to express the sense of the Congress that the United States should not make any arrangements with Panamanian strongman Noriega which involve dropping of any Federal drug-related indictments against Noriega.

Pages 11193, 11199

(5) Warner Amendment No. 2098, to express the sense of the Senate that (1) modernization of NATO's theater nuclear capabilities following ratification of the INF Treaty is essential to the deterrence strategy of the Alliance, (2) continued U.S. modernization of its theater nuclear capabilities should be undertaken in close consultation with our NATO Allies, and (3) the United States should proceed with ongoing activities for satisfying the identified Alliance requirement for a Follow-on to Lance (as amended below).

(6) Warner Amendment No. 2099 (to Amendment No. 2098), in the nature of a substitute.

INF Treaty: Senate continued consideration of Treaty Doc. No. 100–11, Treaty Between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Elimination of Intermediate-Range and Shorter-Range Missiles, with a condition, taking action on additional amendments proposed thereto, as follows: Page 12568

Adopted:

(1) By unanimous vote of 96 yeas (Vote No. 157), Nunn-Warner Amendment No. 2302 (to the resolution of ratification), to provide that the advice and consent of the Senate to the ratification of the INF Treaty is further subject to the condition that in connection with the exchange of the instruments of ratification pursuant to Article XVII of the Treaty, the President shall obtain the agreement of the Soviet Socialist Republics that the agreement concluded by exchange of notes in Geneva on May 12, 1988, between the United States and the Soviet Union as to the application of the Treaty to intermediate-range and shorter-range missiles flight-tested or deployed to carry or be used as weapons based on either current of future technologies and as to the related question of the definition of the term "weapon-delivery vehicle" as used in the Treaty, and the agreement minute of May 12, 1988, signed by Ambassador Glitman and Col. Gen. N. Chervov reflecting the agreement of the parties regarding certain issues related to the Treaty, are of the same force and effect as the provisions of the Treaty.

(2) Helms Amendment No. 2303 (to Amendment No. 2302), of a perfecting nature, adding the agreements signed on May 21, 1988, in Vienna and Moscow, respectively, correcting the site diagrams and certain technical errors in the Treaty.

Page 12569

(3) By 72 yeas to 27 nays (Vote No. 158), Byrd Amendment No. 2305 (to the committee condition to the resolution of ratification), to provide that the Senate's advice and consent to ratification of the INF Treaty is subject to the condition, based on the Treaty Clauses of the Constitution, that (1) the United States shall interpret the Treaty in accordance with the common understanding of the Treaty shared by the President and the Senate at the time the Senate gave its advice and consent to ratification; (2) such common understanding is based on (a) the text of the Treaty and the provisions of the resolution of ratification, and (b) the authoritative representations which were provided by the President and his representatives to the Senate and its Committees, in seeking Senate consent to ratification, insofar as such representations were directed to the meaning and legal effect of the text of the Treaty; (3) the United States shall not agree to or adopt an interpretation different from that common understanding except pursuant to Senate advice and consent to a subsequent treaty or protocol, or the enactment of a statute; and (4) if, subsequent to ratification of the Treaty, a question arises as to the interpretation of a provision of the Treaty on which no common understanding was reached in accordance with paragraph (2), that provision shall be interpreted in accordance with applicable United States law.

Rejected:

Wilson Amendment No. 2325, to provide that the only interpretations of the Treaty which bind the United States are those which are equally binding on the Soviet Union under applicable international law. (By 53 yeas to 45 nays (Vote No. 160), Senate tabled the amendment.)

Withdrawn:

(1) Byrd Amendment No. 2296 (to the committee condition to the resolution of ratification), to establish common understanding that the Senate's advice and consent to ratification of the INF Treaty is subject to the condition, based on the Treaty Clause of the Constitution, that the President shall implement and interpret the Treaty in accordance with the common understanding of the Treaty shared by the President and the Senate, and that any interpretation or implementation of the Treaty which is inconsistent with such common understanding and which is not lawfully made pursuant to any subsequent statute or Treaty shall have no force or effect.

Defense Savings Act: House passed H.R. 4481, to provide for the closing and realigning of certain military installations during a certain period.

Page 17741

Agreed to the amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended, made in order by the rule (agreed to by a recorded vote of 374 ayes to 39 noes, Roll No. 224).

Page 17778

Agreed to the Armey amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended, by the Porter amendment, that provides that bases recommended by the Commission on Base Realignment and Closure to be closed would be done so unless both Houses of Congress disapprove the report; makes domestic bases the focal point of the Commission's review, rather than overseas bases; eliminates environmental impact and review requirements; and provides that not more than one half of the professional staff of the Commission be individuals who have been employed by the Department of Defense during 1988 (agreed to by a recorded vote of 223 ayes to 186 noes, Roll No. 223).

Pages 17757, 17762

Earlier, the House took the following actions on the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order by the rule:

Agreed to:

The Weldon amendment that would have instructed the Commission to give particular consideration to the recommendations of local communities adjacent to or within a military installation, regarding closure or realignment of such installation; and

The Porter amendment that would have provided that not more than half of the professional staff of the Commission be individuals who have been employed by the Department of Defense during 1988.

Rejected:

The Porter amendment that sought to increase the number of members of the Commission on Base Realignment and Closure from 9 to 15 members, reflecting a geographical balance (rejected by a division vote of 7 ayes to 9 noes);

Page 17743

The Davis of Illinois amendment that sought to increase the number of members of the Commission by adding four chairmen and four ranking minority members of relevant authorizing and appropriating subcommittees of the House and Senate;

Page 17746

The Porter amendment that sought to require that the professional staff of the Commission consist only of those individuals who were not employed by the Department of Defense in 1988 (rejected by a division vote of 4 ayes to 10 noes);

Page 17747

The Kolbe amendment that sought to strike language applying the provisions of the bill to military bases outside the United States; and

Page 17749

The Davis of Illinois amendment that sought to prohibit the Secretary of Defense from closing or realigning bases in the United States under the provisions of the bill, until foreign bases so designated by the Commission had been closed or realigned.

Suspensions: The House voted to suspend the rules and pass the following bills, which were debated on Monday:

ANTI-APARTHEID ACT AMENDMENTS

Committee on Rules: Granted a modified open rule providing 2 hours of debate on H.R. 1580, Anti-Apartheid Act Amendments of 1988. The rule makes it in order to consider an amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of the bill H.R. 5175 as an original bill for the purpose of amendment, to be considered as having been read. Clause 5(a) of Rule XXI is waived against the substitute. The rule provides that no amendment to the substitute is in order except the amendments printed in the report accompanying this resolution. The amendments may be offered by the Member designated, or his designee. Debate time is specified in the report for each amendment. Each of the amendments is not subject to amendment except as specified in the report. All points of order are waived against the amendments. The amendments are subject to a demand for a division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit, with or without instructions. Testimony was heard from Chairman Fascell and Representatives Wolpe, Gibbons, Dellums, Broomfield, Burton of Indiana, Donald E. Lukens, Crane, Kyl, Bartlett, Swindall and Hyde.

AIDS FEDERAL POLICY ACT AMENDMENTS

Committee on Rules: Granted a modified open rule providing 1 hour of debate on H.R. 5142, AIDS Federal Policy Act of 1988. The rule provides that no amendment to the bill is in order except the amendments printed in the report accompanying this resolution. The amendments may be offered by the Member designated, or his designee. Debate time is specified in the report for each amendment. Each of the amendments is not subject to amendment except as specified in the report. All points of order are waived against the amendments. The amendments are not subject to a demand for a division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit. After passage of H.R. 5142, the rule provides for a motion to take the bill S. 1220 from the Speaker's table and to consider the bill in the House. The rule provides for a motion to strike out the Senate text and insert the text of H.R. 5142 as passed the House. The rule then provides for a motion for the House to insist on its amendment to the bill and request a conference with the Senate. Testimony was heard from Representatives Waxman, Wyden, Hall of Texas, Weiss, Pelosi, Dannemeyer, Coats, Green, Burton of Indiana and Lightfoot.

OMNIBUS DRUG INITIATIVE ACT

Committee on Rules: Granted a rule providing for consideration of a bill relating to the omnibus drug initiative if introduced by Representatives Foley and Michel; waiving all points of order against the bill and against its consideration; and providing three hours of debate. No amendment to the bill is in order except the amendments printed in the report accompanying this resolution, or those amendments offered by the majority leader in the manner specified in the rule. The amendments printed in the report are to be considered only in the order and in the manner specified in the report. The amendments are to be offered only by the members designated or their designee. The proponents of the amendment may make conforming changes (that is to page, line and section numbers) in their amendments to reflect the introduction of the Omnibus Drug Initiative bill. Debate time on the amendments is specified in the report. All points of order against the amendments contained in the report are waived. The amendments are not amendable, except as provided in the report, nor are they subject to a demand for a division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. If both amendments offered to title VI by Representatives Rangel and Gekas are adopted, only the last such amendment is considered as finally adopted and reported back to the House. If both of the amendments to title VI relating to the subject of the drug enforcement coordinator offered by Representatives Oxley and Brooks are adopted, only the last amendment which is adopted is considered as finally adopted and reported back to the House. Notwithstanding any provision of this resolution or any rule of the House, it is in order for the majority leader, after consultation with the minority leader, to offer amendments to the bill. The amendments are debatable for one hour, equally divided and controlled by the majority leader and the minority leader. The amendments are not subject to amendment. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit.

Measures Passed:

Return of Senator Biden: Senate agreed to S. Res. 465, extending a warmest welcome and personal happiness to Senator Joe Biden, upon his return after a six-month absence to recuperate from surgery, and extending best wishes for his continued good health.

Page 22436

Textile and Apparel Trade Act of 1988: By 68 yeas to 29 nays (Vote No. 314), three-fifths of those Senators duly chosen and sworn having voted in the affirmative, Senate agreed to close further debate on S. 2662, to remedy injury to the United States textile and apparel industries caused by increased imports.

Pages 22423, 22435

Senate began consideration of the bill, taking action on amendments proposed thereto, as follows:

Rejected:

(1) Packwood Amendment No. 2881, to provide that the textile quota shall not apply in any year in which the domestic industry has an above-average return on its assets. (By 62 yeas to 32 nays (Vote No. 316), Senate tabled the amendment.)

(2) Gramm Amendment No. 2862, to provide that the President may suspend the application of the provisions of the Act if he determines that application of the provisions of the Act would impose an economic burden on the poor proportionately greater than that imposed on the population of the United States as a whole. (By 60 yeas to 22 nays (Vote No. 317), Senate tabled the amendment.)

(3) Evans Amendment No. 2860L, to provide that the limitations on the importation on the aggregate quantity of textiles and textile products proscribed under subsections (a) through (f) shall not apply to any country that, in calendar 1987, purchased more textiles and textile products produced in the United States than it exported such products to the United States. (By 59 yeas to 31 nays (Vote No. 318), Senate tabled the amendment.)

(4) Gramm Amendment No. 2871, to exempt workers' coveralls, uniforms, workshoes, and workboots from the provisions of the bill. (By 62 yeas to 28 nays (Vote No. 319), Senate tabled the amendment.)

During today's consideration of the bill, the following action was also taken:

By 71 yeas to 24 nays (Vote No. 315), Senate tabled a Gramm point of order that the bill was unconstitutional, as being a revenue measure originating in the Senate.

Senate will continue consideration of the bill and amendments proposed thereto on Thursday, September 8.
